Carmen Berg Joins Joyce Rey's Prestigious Team at Coldwell Banker Previews International -- Ranked the #1 Team on the West Coast for 2012.

PR Newswire

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., April 30, 2013

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., April 30, 2013 /PRNewswire-iReach/ -- Prominent Beverly Hills real estate specialist, Carmen Berg, has joined Joyce Rey's team of top real estate professionals; ranked the #1 Team on the West Coast for 2012 with residential real estate transactions exceeding $300 million.

"Joyce Rey is legendary in luxury real estate and it is an honor to have the opportunity to work alongside her," says Berg. "I am excited to strengthen the continued growth and presence of Joyce's team through my own exclusive network of relationships, including clients from Turkey and the Middle East."

Berg is a graduate of the renowned World Wide College of Auctioneering in Mason City, IA, and is also one of the few licensed female auctioneers in the country. After a successful career in property auctions, she has applied her experience in high level negotiations to the real estate industry; making her mark as a multi-million dollar producer through her ability to get exceptional results for both her buyers and sellers.

"High end buyers have high expectations of their agent. They want to know that you have a pulse on real estate trends and that you are effective in representing their financial interests," says Berg. "My approach starts with a deep dive to understand the full spectrum of my clients' needs. That way I can develop a customized plan that gets my clients exactly what they want."

Carmen can be contacted directly at 310.995-5900. More information is also available at her website: www.berg-sen.com

News distributed by PR Newswire iReach: https://ireach.prnewswire.com

SOURCE Carmen Berg